READING DAY

It is really true that 'Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body'. It makes the brain think, enriches imagination and at the same time it provides pleasure and helps people to relax. Neither TV, nor Internet can replace good books. That's why those who want to be smart and intelligent should spend on reading at least 30 minutes daily. There is an opportunity to start this reading practice from 13th October. Government of Maharashtra declared 15th Oct birth anniversary of A.P.J.Kalam as Reading Day, but this year because of Diwali Vacation we will be celebrate it on 13th Oct. 2017.

It is request to all the faculty members to please assemble in library between 1.30pm to 2.30pm to give tribute to A.P.J. Kalam by reading book in the library.
